PREACHERSVILLE.

James Dyabhouse's little boy's broken arm is mending nicely.

Beazley's rock crusher is at Walter Warren's. We hope this will make our bad pikes better.

D. M. Anderson and Joel Anderson have returned from the World's Fair.

Preachersville will get along nicely without a rural mail service our people are all saying. The petition being circulated against it is getting quite a long list of signers who most vehemently object to its being established.

Howard Carrier, of Nashville, is visiting his friend, J. T. Blagman. Sam Carpenter, of Madison, has been visiting W. H. Cummins. W. T. Sutton and wife, of Garrard, visited at J. K. Sutton's. Your correspondent was at the Broadhead fair and spent a few days with O. E. Lawrence.

P. E. Parrish sold to A. M. Pecca 20 ewes at $10, also a bunch of butcher cattle to Ben Robinson at $10. J. M. Green sold some hay to Logan Cash, of Rockcastle, at $10. J. H. Thompson sold to J. B. Willis, of Crab Orchard, 200 bales of hay at $10. The field P. E. Parrish's walking mare won at the Broadhead fair over eight competitors and was loudly cheered by the Preachersville people who were present. Mr. Dallas, Broadhead's barber, immediately bought her of Mr. Parrish for $125. Bob Garrison bought of J. T. Blagman a cow and calf for $15. Frank Gross, our clever veterinarian and breaker of horses, is kept quite busy attending calls. His work is giving entire satisfaction.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Sam Costello bought of A. M. Peland a horse for $125.

John S. Baughman sold to Thomas C. Ramsey, of Mosticello, a three-year-old Allwood gelding for $250.—Advocate.

D. C. Tucker, Jr., bought in Marion county 50 shoats at 34 cents, which he disposed of in Boyle county at 44 cents.—Advocate.

B. G. Fox & Co. will be at Stanford next court day to buy 100 mule colts and 50 yearlings. Mules received day of purchase.

Men with blackened faces held up a lone herder and shot to death over 1,000 head of thoroughbred sheep on Little Summit prairie in Oregon.

ESTRAYED.—A black horse about six years old, long mane and tail, this in order, left my mill Aug. 15. Information leading to his recovery will be rewarded. S. C. Thurmond, Lytle, Ky.

Robert Reeves, of Christian county, is probably the largest wheat grower in Kentucky this year. Reports at the State Agricultural Department are that he raised 20,000 bushels and that he refused $1.15 for it.

S. E. Terry sold to J. W. Merca, of Lebanon Junction, his fine educated high school horse "Glasgow," for $350. "Glasgow" is one of the prettiest yellow horses ever seen here, as well as one of the best educated.—Glasgow Times.

A Few Remarks From The Prohibition Candidate.

In becoming the prohibition candidate for Congress I appeal to the good citizenship of the 8th district for your support. Not because you owe it to me, but because you owe it to yourselves and to your children. All religious denominations differ in some respects one from the other. But all are agreed that the saloon is the greatest enemy to the church and the home.

The prohibition party is the only party that stands for the complete overthrow of the license liquor traffic. If you are for this I am entitled to your vote. It is better to vote for what you want and not get it than to throw your vote away on some license party for what you do not want and get it. I have voted the prohibition ticket straight for the last 16 years. Had I voted with either of the license parties my ballot would have been so much like the distillers', brewers' and saloon keepers' that the angels could not have told one from the other. I am proud of that record. I believe God will approve it.

The prohibition party is the defender of the home and the church. Since its organization 30 years ago, numerous political parties based on whimsical ideas have sprung into existence and passed away. The democratic and republican parties have filled the positions for which they were created. Today they stand united in favor of sound money and liquor license, their only issue being which side will poll the most votes next fall. The prohibition party comes to you with an issue that shapes the destiny of nations. Witness Belshazzar with a thousand of his drunken lords; Alexander, the world's conqueror, bowing to the scepter of King Bacchus. Our own beloved country is staggering on to the same destiny.

The prohibition party comes knocking at the door of the Christian conscience asking that you settle aright an issue that will gladden the hearts of thousands of outraged wives and mothers in our land. It comes with an issue that will bless millions yet unborn, and though crushed to earth and ground to atoms its cause will never die.

Statistics show that for every dollar of revenue paid into our treasuries, municipal, State and national, it costs $16.50 to provide for the paupers and prosecute the criminals made by the licensed traffic.

I mention one of the numerous instances that I call to mind. A few years ago in Junction City, Boyle county, Ky., a dispute arose over the payment for one glass of beer, Maj. Wells, the town marshal, was killed, another man shot and the saloon keeper sent to the penitentiary. This case alone cost the Commonwealth over $2,500.

Some claim the liquor traffic can never be abolished. On ye of little faith! Know ye not that history repeats itself? You would not have believed that in less than five years from the day Abraham Lincoln was first elected president that eight millions of creatures that were bought and sold like sheep, and cattle would be transformed into American citizens and each of their votes would count for as much as the president's. It cost millions of dollars and oceans of blood, but it was done.

When public sentiment demanded that the Louisiana State lottery should cease, it was done. The same government that says for so many dollars you can make so many gallons of liquor, can just as easily say you shall not make it at all.

As a candidate for the Legislature on the prohibition ticket last year in Lincoln county 410 ballots were officially counted for me and over 200 were thrown out. These votes were all free will offerings, unbought and unbegged. Ob that all who claim to know the Lord and love him and the church would prove it at the ballot box.

A. W. CARPENTER.

Sick Headache.

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. #### MATRIMONIAL.

Samuel Yocum and Miss Laura Devore were married yesterday.

A Georgetown dispatch says: At the home of her brother-in-law, Rev. Joseph Severance, at Newtown, this county, Miss Henry Halbert and William B. Harp, a young farmer, were married. It was learned here yesterday that Hiram McElroy, private secretary to Dr. J. S. Redwine, superintendent of the Eastern Kentucky Asylum, and Miss Pearl Gilmore, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Gilmore, of Covington, were married April 17 in Columbus O., says a Lexington dispatch.

Ollie Huffman, son of Mr. O. P. Huffman, and Miss Annie Robinson, of Harrodsburg, eloped to Jellico and were joined heart and hand. On their return they came to the home of the groom where they are now domiciled. The marriage is the result of a courtship of over two years, we are told. Mr. Huffman is a clever, energetic young man and his bride is an exceedingly attractive and pleasing woman.

MAURY-MENEFE.—At the beautiful home of Mr. John N. Menefee, 60 East Main Street at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning Miss Mary Elizabeth Menefee and Mr. George P. Maury were made husband and wife in a pretty ceremony performed by Rev. O. M. Huey, of the Baptist church. A seven-course breakfast, which was partaken of by the 40 or more guests, followed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Maury drove to Danville and took the fast train for St. Louis. After a sojourn of a week or so there they will go the lakes and remain during the rest of the heated term. From there they will go to Pittsburg, Pa., and reside. The bride is a handsome young woman, highly accomplished and exceedingly popular. She has a host of admirers who congratulate Mr. Maury on the jewel he has won. Mr. Maury, who is a most affable gentleman, is a successful business man of Pittsburg. The Menefee home was beautifully decorated with palms, smilax, etc., direct from the South, and the scene presented when the vows were taken was a most lovely one. Miss Virginia Bourne presided at the organ. The bride wore a delicate muslin gown trimmed in handsome lace and the conventional bridal veil adorned her head. Four little pieces of the groom, Misses Mitchell and Hewitt, of Fayette, acted as flower girls.
